FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Students:

Whenever I prepare a message for a yearbook I am conscious of the fact that it may get read many years from now, long after memories of St. Michael's have begun to fade and perhaps long after some of us are dead and gone!

This realization leads me to reflect on what is truly important and lasting. I am convinced that a truly successful life is one that is lived in peace with oneself and with the world.

We are successful if we learn to accept and love life on life's terms, to accept and love ourselves as we are and as God has knows us and, in turn, to accept and love others both those with whom we are intimate and those who are strangers to us.

There are distractions and obstacles to acceptance and love but we have the tools of prayer, scripture and sacraments to help us to overcome these challenges and to get on track.

My wish for you is when you read this you are experiencing the joys of a life lived in God's peace.

With blessings and prayers always,

Fr. Joe Redican CSB President

STUDEN GOVERNMENT2006

nother vear has come and gone and congratulations the student aovernment have been well earned. The student government is composed of elected representatives from each grade and is responsible improving school spirits and relationships both inside school and within the broader surrounding community. Under the leadership of highly experienced senior members and energetic newcomers alike the student government worked long and hard to make all the events of the year memorable. The 2005-2006 year was kicked off with the Thanksgiving and Christmas food drives, our first dance, and climaxed with Christmas in the Courtyard. The New Year began quietly but picked up with two more dances, the track barbeque. "freeze frame", the "high five drive", and rock night. All the dances were well attended and everyone left in high spirits. During the two food drives countless hours were spent by the student government and volunteers alike to gather, sort and package food and toys for the needy. At Christmas, in the Courtyard the St. Michael's community came together in prayer and celebration. This was also the first year of the "high five drive", which helped bridge the gap between the older and younger students. The student government would like to thank all the student volunteers, school staff, parent volunteers, and all who attended the events for making this year truly memorable.

PATRICIA BOLAND

APRIL 13 1943 - JANUARY 7 2006

The St. Michael's College School community has been deeply saddened by the passing of Patricia Boland on Saturday January 7th. Over the last twelve years, Pat had been the school Librarian, teacher, coach, colleague, and friend to the St. Michael's community. Ms. Boland will be deeply missed.

Prior to joining the St. Michael's community, Ms. Boland had an outstanding career in sports especially in basketball. Pat's athletic career included playing for the University of Manitoba, Women's Athletic Director at the Loyola College/Concordia University, accomplished sports journalist, CBC Basketball commentator, and manager of the 1984 Canadian Olympic women's basketball team.

She was also a member of two halls of fame, as a builder at Concordia and as a basketball player in the Manitoba Sports Hall of Fame.

"I love it at St. Mike's", said Ms. Boland in a 2004 edition of The Vision. "St. Mike's is a wonderful, caring and stimulating community. I feel blessed to have found a home here."

A memorial service and reception was held at St. Michael's on Thursday, January 12th.

-THE VISION

This year, the Anime Club watched and examined numerous works of Anime done by Japanese artists. Anime is an art style that has been around since the mid 80s, and it has been popular ever since. Anime has many types of styles that many consider an art form. Not only were shows and movies watched, the participants also drew and sketched their own characters. This year's club proved to be another successful year with the boy's positive attitudes and creative minds, we hope that this same success will continue in the future.

The Art Club met every Thursday under the direction of Mr. Viola and Mrs. Pignetti. After school art projects and accomplish-ments such as paintings, wood burnings and the Music Room mural were a great success and further developed students' artistic skills as well as creative and imaginative aptitudes. Also, the Art Club displayed a wide range of their artworks in the annual Art Show. All in all, this year's Art Club was a growing experience both artistically and imaginatively.

The Blue Herald took a new spin on the student newspaper this year, completing only one issue and released it days before the Christmas Exams. The issue's headline article was Sean O'Loghlen's "Student Government: Undemocratic?", in which the Student Government was bashed for not having an elected leader. Ironically enough, next year's Blue Herald staff will be working in conjunction with the Student Government to put out a monthly Podcast, and a website based on student intrests. Have we lost all hope? Next year's Blue Herald is one you're not going to want to miss!

Missing from the photo: Matthew Lombardi, Joseph Zentil, Zenon Ciz, Peter Grbac

The Blue Oracle is the grade seven and eight newspaper at St. Michael's. The newspaper allows the younger minds to write about what interests them. Because the Blue Herald is geared toward students grade nine and older, the Blue Oracle gives more opportunities for more of the younger students to get involved at St. Michael's. The Blue Oracle came out with its first issue in Spring 2006, and be prepared for more in the future.

Second Row: Mr. Callaghan, Grant Gonzales, Mark Broussenko

This year's Briscola Club was very nice, moderated by Mr. G. Di Leo. This club demonstrates the strength of Italian Spirit present in the yellow brick walls of Saint Michael's College School. The Briscola card game is very intense, requires a high level of concentration and a high level of strategic planning between the team members. The winners of this year's tournament were great demonstrators of this profound skill. The Briscola Club will start up again in the upcoming year; we hope to see you and your partner there!

Mr. Di Leo, Michael Pace, Andrew Kent, Paul Tobia, Alexander Melino

This year's Chess Club moderated by Mr. Bissonnette saw a large influx of members compared to previous years (three, to be exact). Directly after first dismissal, members of the Chess Club would meet in room 12 and frantically wait for Mr. Bissonnette to take out the chess boards. This year would go on record to have an uneven number of members, allowing for a quick game of Rock Paper Scissors to see who will be the odd man out. Photographed right, Andrew Brown had to play chess against himself. The only plus side in this situation is that "Everyone is a winner!". Thanks to everyone who came out for an incredible season, and never forget: "There aint no party like a chess club party".

The St. Michael's College School Choir gives students a chance to show the student body and school staff how great their singing voices are! Under the direction of Fr. Zinger, the choir performs at school masses throughout the year. Each time outdoing the previous performance the choir continues to improve. The choir continues on this year singing wonderful music, and welcomes students who are strong singers to join and have fun!

For the past several years St. Michael's students have been working in elementary schools located in needy areas of Toronto. This past year 56 students participated in the Outreach Program at Winchester Public School and Holy Rosary Elementary School where they tutored students in grades 3-7 every Monday and Tuesday after school for 90 minutes. Classes focused on literacy skills, reading and writing, mathematics, and homework completion. St. Michael's tutors also used educational games like Pictionary, Scrabble, Chess, and Checkers to help students develop their thinking skills. In the 2005-2006 school year, St. Michael's students donated over 1400 hours to this valuable program. They are to be commended for generously sharing their academic gifts.

The St. Michael's Computer Programming Club is moderated by Mr. Shust and is geared towards the education and wisdom of computer programming. In the club, students are taught the fundamental knowledge of how to create simple and complex computer programs. A series of contests are held for the students and the top five combined scores of the St. Michael's students determine whether they are invited to the All-Star Competition or not. St. Mike's has had the honour of competing in the contest almost every year since the club first entered 12 years ago.

The Critical Film Society is a studentrun organization dedicated to screening important motion pictures and encouraging discussion and analysis of them. The Society meets weekly to go through various films. Dr. Bednarski moderated this club in his final year teaching at St. Michael's.

If improvisation and comedy are your fortes, then this club is for you. During the weekly gatherings, the improv club performed comedic improvised skits. Improvisation is a comedy form that requires the performers to act out skits or say jokes off the top of their heads. It is a challenging feat, yet these students were up to the challenge to deliver comedy of the highest standards.

The Italian Club is the main spreader of Italian culture throughout St. Michael's. Moderators Mr. DiLeo and Ms. Anna Di Meglio would agree that there are a fair amount of students of Italian descent, and so the Italian Club educates those who are of Italian background, and also those who are not. The Italian Club holds numerous events and meetings. Examples of events would be the Italian-style BBQ, soccer games, and Briscola (Italian cards) tournaments.

The Leadership Program at St. Michoel's College School is currently in its fifth year of operation and bas grown from a handful of Grade 11 and 12 students to a booming community of 80 high school students from grades 3 – 12. The Leadership Program is dosigned to provide an engaging, interactive experience for students in an environment where they have their own opportunity to bring forth an initiative to help other students in the community. The students will then roceive training and coaching from faculty staff and senior leaders to help make their initiatives become a reality. Students work on their initiatives pear-round in groups and then have an opportunity to present their resulting work to grade 7 and 8 students within the St. Michael's community and other carholic schools in the surrounding area. This year, the leadership community is promising to be as successful as ever with students working un a range of projects including Bullying, Respect, Poer Pressure, Morally, Meutal Health Awareness, and Media and Popular Culture.

The Prefects serve the St. Michael's Community as student leaders, and as ambassadors for St. Michael's to the larger public community.

The photography and videography club teaches students about both subjects, making them better understand the mechanics behind each. The members learn a wide array of skills involved in these two areas. The club is not only an after school activity, it helps to gather and develop pictures for various school events, like Open Houses and the Athletic Awards Banquet.

The Junior Reach for the Top team consists of grade nine and ten students who want to expand their knowledge of facts from history and geography to music and films. Each week, students participated in intramural competition with a large variety of questions. There were other competitions that took place between schools, in which the Junior team was usually victorious.

The Reach for the Top team plays in a 16 team city league where school teams match wits with another in 100 question game packs. Questions run the gamut from history, art pop culture, sports, and geography.

CLUBS & ACTIVITIES

For the past six years students from St.

For the past six years students from St. Michael's have been spending their March break helping out at the Basilian run mission in St. Lucia. The mission started thirteen years ago and servs the local people in a variety of ways. The two lay missionaries and a Basilian priest operate the local parish, provide material goods for those in need, and help train the local people for jobs.

This year fifteen St. Michael's students and two teachers carried this annual mission trip. With a generous donation from the students and funds raised by the students themselves, the gwas able to bring approximately $1500.00 worth of goods to the geople of St. Lucia. While there, the students did a variety of this

The mission trip is a unique opportunity for students to experience how others live in difficult and trying circumstances. It is also an oppountunity to put their faith into action adm to develop their own spiritual life. As a result, many students begin to appreciate their many blessings and begin to mature in their faith.

an end the Grade 7's had an oppornity to spend their first week as St. lichael's students at Camp Pinecrest Muskoka. While enjoying activities ch as early morning swims, canoeig, kayaking, low ropes activities and les on the zip line, the students had a opportunity to meet their fellow assmates. For many of the campers, re awe and serenity of Mass celorated under the stars by Fr. Murphy as truly a memorable moment. Durig this week the students learned work together, appreciating each her's strengths and talents and deloping bonds and ties that will last roughout the years that lay ahead.

BALL

The culmination of every graduating student's high school years is celebrated in their year end grad formal. Here's a time when all students get to relax with friends and reap the rewards of all their hard work throughout the years; this years Double Blue Ball was no exception. Big thanks to the student government and all the teachers involved in the planning and execution of the events, the night wouldn't have been possible without all their help. One of the hillights of the evening was the Mark Froment vs. Pierre Froment freestyle rap battle in the parking lot afterwards. The night was truly one to remember.

THE YEARBOOK

THOMAS CATTANA EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, LAYOUT, CONTENT COORDINATION

Being my lirst and only yearbook as aditor-in-chief, I had no idea what kind of job I was acc ing. The yearbook is a massive undertaking and near impossible to do alone, making anyone willing to do it without any compensation insane. In typical yearbook write up fashion, I would like to thank the people that helped make this book come into realization. David and Paolo; y-r official titles changed almost every day, but the amount of work you did always remained the same. Joey and Grant, thanks for coordinating and taking the photos for the book. Francasco, you took this photo of me, and for that I'm greatful. Shawna; I probably would still have been working on the school newspaper if you hadn't suck me into working on the yearbook two years ago. This book is the constant reminder of good times had a St. Mikes, so cherish it.

JOEY ZENTIL

So working on the yearbook was pretty fun. Tom is pretty cool, he knows alot about macs. Macs are fun, they look cool, they work well. Also, I like cameras. So when I took photos and used macs to put them in the yearbook it was like a math equasion. Fun + Fun = More fun. Pretty much everyone in the yearbook office has super powers, Grant was like Mighty Mouse because hes small and "Mighty" Zenon was like Aquaman because he likes to swim, Tom was like Batman because he had these neat gadgets and stuff, Peter was like Wonder Women because he was Spawned by a Greek goddesses on the paradise island of Themyscira... He was granted flight, incredible strength, speed, wisdom, and beauty. And finally I see myself as The Phantom.... Hes pretty cool, he rides a horse and wears purple. He goes around yelling SLAM EVIL! Oh ya, I also wrote the comments for the Zinger candid photos.. I dont like to blow up my own work, but its pretty funny. My last bit of advice to everyone who reads this would be summed up in this quote: "Fiction writing is great, you can make up almost anything." - Ivana Trump

FRANCESCO CAMMISA

And another year has gone by. Once again the making of this yearbook has been a wonderful experience that has been shared with some of the best workers, funniest comedians and great friends. The production of this yearbook has been anything but a joyride; instead it has been a roller coaster ride of jobs, designs, write-ups and so on. However, as each year goes by it seems that the production of "the Tower" runs smoother and immense improvements are made. I hope that the St. Michael's community enjoys this sleek, crisp and artistic yearbook as much as I do. Finally, I would like to thank Thomas Cattana (Borat/T-Cat/Tom), the editor of the Towar, for his determination and vast amount of work put into this difficult undertaking. Enjoy guys!

GRANT GONZALES PHOTOGRAPHY

I believe this is yearbook number three. Yet again, I am taking pictures. I've taken more than I can remember: .. most of the group photos, school activities and events, and of course, the random everyday school photos. It has been a fun year, and definitely busy year in the Yearbook Club. Tom and Francesco working hard, while Pusateri and Demedici do something for the yearbook (I just don't know what!). This yearbook is another success. And now, there's one more left for me!

DAVID DE MEDICIS

EDITOR-IN-TRAINING

It has been a long and rather challenging year of "year-booking" for the 2005-2006 Tower team. Nevertheless, as always, the Tower has been completed, shined up, polished, printed and is now in your hands. I wanted to congratulate Thomas for putting out his first yearbook, and to the rest of the members for a job well done. I now have been a part of the Yearbook Club as a full member for the past year. I had to pass numerous amounts of tests and initiations just to get into the club. My job is usually to do random tasks like scanning, running down teachers for pictures and info, and the layout. It's extremely fun working on the yearbook and being in the yearbook office, where there have been millions of memories, both good and bad, and there will be millions more in the future. Thanks to Thomas, Francesco, Paolo, Grant, and Joey for an amazing year. See you all for the next book!

PAOLO PUSATERI INTERN

This year, my first year at The Tower was very exciting and interesting. As The Assistant and PR Manager, I undertook many tasks and challenges involving hard work and an open creative mind. Being The Assistant, I was responsible in helping the other Tower Staff with their project loads and thinking of new creative ideas that could enhance this edition of The Tower. What I especially enjoyed was being able to give my input, making changes, and critiquing the projects. My role as the PR Manager, involved interacting with St. Mike's staff and students. Asking for people's opinions or going to teacher's for write-ups for trips and events was my main responsibility. As I look back on the year, I think of the hard work put into this yearbook, but most of all I remember the fun times, great memories, and stories that the Tower Staff all share. Everyday at The Tower is fun-filled, exciting, and very very funny. Each day more ideas are brought to the table and we work as a group to bring you the best yearbook pos-
